Terms and Conditions

By registering to take part in the Tour de Penge I agree to the terms and conditions of the event and to abiding by its rules and regulations.

The Tour de Penge Rules and Regulations

All participants enter this event entirely at their own risk and The Tour de Penge organisers, Penge Festival Committee, Bromley Cyclists and associated groups and organisations shall not be liable for any injury or loss that might occur as a result of their participation.

All participants understand that The Tour de Penge organisers, Penge Festival Committee, Bromley Cyclists and associated groups and organisations will hold and use data provided by them in connection with The Tour de Penge administration, to keep them informed of their activities.

By taking part, all participants confirm that they are happy for any photographs taken during their participation in The Tour de Penge to be used to publicise the cycle ride for the Penge Festival.

Any participant unsure of their physical ability to take part in the Tour de Penge must take medical advice from a general practitioner prior to the event.

All participants under the age of 16 must be accompanied by an adult.

All participants agree to abide by the rules of the highway code, and follow the advice, direction and instruction of the event organiser, event volunteers and marshals to ensure a safe and successful event.

All participants confirm that their bicycles are roadworthy, in good repair and suitable for use in the Tour de Penge event.

All participants agree that they may be refused the right of participation in the The Tour de Penge event where the organiser believes the participant's safety or the safety of others may be compromised.

All participants will indemnify The Tour de Penge organisers, Penge Festival Committee, Bromley Cyclists, its agents and suppliers from any repair to their bicycle prior, during or after the event, which is carried out by marshals at The Tour de Penge.
